

JOIN

I wish to support the Commission for the Preservation of Pioneer Jewish Cemeteries and Landmarks in the West.

_____ Basic Membership $36.00
_____ Mensch $72.00
_____ Other $ _____

Members receive periodic updates from the Commission and opportunities to be involved with its work.

Name _____

Address _____

E-mail: _____

Phone #: _____

Please send to P.O. Box 433, Aptos, CA 95001.

Questions? Contact the Commission at pioneerjewishcemeteries@gmail.com for more information.

FELLOWSHIPS & GRANTS

Robert E. Levinson Fellowship - provides grants to college students studying Jewish history in the west.

The Commission supports community projects that support its mission. Past projects include Eagle Scout projects, Bar/Bat Mitzvah, and community service projects.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE JUDAH L. MAGNES MUSEUM

A Traveler's Guide to Pioneer Jewish Cemeteries of the California Gold Rush,
By Susan Morris.

The Jews in the California Gold Rush,
By Dr. Robert E. Levinson

For purchase information, contact
pioneerjewishcemeteries@gmail.com

PIONEER JEWISH CEMETERIES IN THE WEST

Jackson Cemetery

OUR MISSION

The Commission for the Preservation of Jewish Cemeteries and Landmarks in the West's mission is two-fold:

- To restore and preserve pioneer Jewish cemeteries and landmarks of the California Gold Rush, and
 - To inform the public of the contributions made by the Jewish settlers in the development of California.
- The Commission is operated with the help of volunteers and invites members of the public to join us in the support and preservation of these sites.

CEMETERIES AND LANDMARKS

The Commission oversees seven pioneer cemeteries in the California Gold Country.

- Sonora
- Mokelumne Hill
- Jackson
- Placerville
- Nevada City
- Grass Valley
- Marysville

VISITING THE CEMETERIES

The public is invited to explore these historic sites. For information about visiting the cemeteries please contact the commission at:

pioneerjewishcemeteries@gmail.com

OUR MISSION

The Commission for the Preservation of Jewish Cemeteries and Landmarks in the West's mission is two-fold:

- To restore and preserve pioneer Jewish cemeteries and landmarks of the California Gold Rush, and
 - To inform the public of the contributions made by the Jewish settlers in the development of California.
- The Commission is operated with the help of volunteers and invites members of the public to join us in the support and preservation of these sites.

CEMETERIES AND LANDMARKS

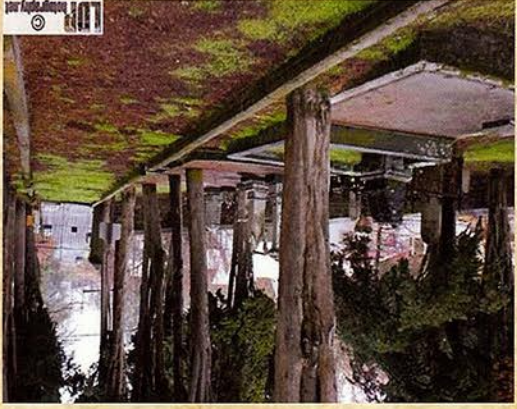

The Commission oversees seven pioneer cemeteries in the California Gold Country.

- Sonora
- Mokelumne Hill
- Jackson
- Placerville
- Nevada City
- Grass Valley
- Marysville

VISITING THE CEMETERIES

The public is invited to explore these historic sites. For information about visiting the cemeteries please contact the commission at:

pioneerjewishcemeteries@gmail.com

HISTORY

Seymour Fromer, founder of the Judah L. Magnes Museum, founded the Commission in 1962 in response to the dilapidated and abandoned state of many of the pioneer cemeteries.

The Commission was associated with the Judah L. Magnes Museum until it became an independent 501(c)3 non-profit in 2010. Donations are tax deductible. Tax ID # 80-0656561.

